In Lab Assessment # 2

Implement the following application that is shown in the images below. The app should have the following features.

1. A custom logo. You can download any logo from google and use it as an App Logo and replace the default android logo
2. All strings and dimensions values should be extracted from the layout into their respective xml files
3. The application should support the following device configuration changes
   a. Language [Arabic and English]
   b. Devices [Tablet and Phone]
   c. Orientations [Landscape and Portrait]
4. The application should have a single menu option that allows the user to close the app

Sample App

Deliverables:

Submit your project to your GitHub Repo. Your submission should be containing the source code Android Studio project and the Testing Sheet.